

I am a Hungarian-born producer equipped with over two decades of experience in the entertainment industry. My journey began in Budapest at TV Pictures Productions and has flourished in New York, where I've been pursuing cross-cultural film collaborations since 2007. Thriving amidst the vibrant multicultural landscape of New York City, I am deeply passionate about creating narrative and documentary films that celebrate diversity. My collaborative spirit shines as I engage with an international cast and crew, bringing unique perspectives to my projects. My intrinsic value lies in my ability to elevate narratives centered on women and cultivate an inclusive and equitable atmosphere within my production team. I take a hands-on approach and orchestrate all aspects of production, seamlessly guiding my projects from conception to distribution. I am dedicated to supporting artists in their creative mission, surrounding them with a stellar team to amplify collaboration. With proficient multi-tasking and effective problem-solving skills, I ensure a smooth workflow and the timely completion of projects within the specified schedule and budget.
